

Donovan Series Out Sticks to Reserves in International League and Cubs and Robins Down Pirates

MERKLE'S HOMER DECIDES ISSUE IN FAVOR OF GIANTS

Circuit Drive Into Left Field Bleachers in Eighth Beats Cubs, 1 to 0.

VAUGHN AT HIS BEST. ALLOWS ONLY 3 HITS

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

The Giants care no more for the Cub than for the Pirates from the Pirates' point of view. They proved that on the Polo Grounds yesterday, when they kept up the winning spurt over Chicago. McGraw's clan licked the Cook county Tinks in a fly-weight hitting bout, the score being 1 to 0. The National Exhibition Company's team has now won eight out of its last nine games. Rather a little improvement over seven wins at home in three months. But, like the habbling brook, those Dodgers keep on winning forever.

Neither team could do any execution with their bats for eight innings, but the Tinks had a clean lead on points scored until the eighth. Up to that round the Giants had collected only two blows, and Fred Merkle hit a squirmy roller to Zimm, which Heinie fumbled. However, Frederick had a better punch, which he leveled for the eighth. The Tinks' eighth. He knocked out the Weeham Bruins with a stout home run blow into the left field bleachers. The drive came with none out in the eighth. Ewerly was willing to reveal the saw Fred took second on his way around. But then John Evers no longer is a Cub.

Jim Vaughn, a former boarder of Washington Heights, did his darndest to keep the Giants from going home happy last night. Since Jimmy seems has been transferred to the National League, the gentleman of the Giants have experienced great difficulty in seeing what Jim throws at them with his left arm. The Cubs always must have a Giant killer. First it was Jack Pfeiffer, then it was Fred, then it was Vaughn. But now Vaughn is no longer is a Cub.

Perritt Opposes Vaughn.

The only trouble with this latest Giant killer yesterday was that he didn't play. While it is true that the Tinks' offense did not flourish against Tink's pitching, their percentage expanded, and that interests John McGraw much more than the fact that the Tinks' offense did not flourish against Tink's pitching. The argument of the Giants have experienced great difficulty in seeing what Jim throws at them with his left arm. The Cubs always must have a Giant killer. First it was Jack Pfeiffer, then it was Fred, then it was Vaughn. But now Vaughn is no longer is a Cub.

Harry Zeider, who led for the Bruins, and had brother Cubs been able to follow Rollo's lead, Merkle's homer would have been merely an incident in the game. But the Cubs were very near the scoring zone, but at such moments the Louisiana boy was as strong as Gibraltar or still stronger—a Bermuda onion.

Herzog a Busy Fellow.

Les Mann made some catches in left field that no human outfielder had any business to be near, and Joe Kelly, once a Pirate, helped Les keep the Cubs from hitting down to half. Hand full. Fletcher again played a pretty game at short, while Herzog was as busy as a swarm of bees around third. He took care of the batsmen, and he did well.

Cubs Get On, but Can't Score.

In the first inning Zeider opened with a single, reached third on two outs, but was left by "Heinie" who flew to Kauff. In the second inning Zeider walked, but there was nothing doing. In the third inning Zeider opened with his second single, but was out stealing. In the fourth, Zimm, first up, singled. Fletcher pitched out on Kelly's following batsman, but nobody scored. Wilson striking out with Zimmerman at third.

In the fifth, with Plack on base, Fletcher ran into center for a shortstop catch on Mann. In the sixth, Zimmerman, first up, took two bases on Herzog's wild throw, but tried to take the base and was out. And so it went. It is any wonder Joe Tinker was a sore bat eat last night.

Until the eighth the Giants had worked only three men to first base. Robertson and Dan Kelly had hit singles, and Merkle was safe on an error by Zimm. The Merkle homer came like a bolt from a clear sky to Joe Flaversham in the eighth, as Vaughn seemed to go to a long way when Merkle swung from his hip—Bing! and the little white pill climbed over the bleacher wall in left, while 8,000 fans publicly proclaimed their give over to the Giants.
